

Simple Storyboard

Your Script (Narration and/or Text)	Images/Comments
Computers Drive Me Crazy	(You can just handwrite on your script showing what image goes where with your narration and is the simplest way to do a storyboard or create a word table and put your text/narration in one column and the image and ideas of animation in the next column.) (text only) Title Slide Black background, yellow moving text
Has the whole world gone nuts? My computer is driving me up the wall! I can't believe this! Somedays it's like some days I shouldn't have even got out bed!	Picture of lady at computer  With words of "Oh Nuts!" superimposed over image.
What am I to do? What am I to do? I feel like I should just	Picture of pulling hair out
I should just screammmmmm!	Picture of screaming little girl
I'd like to thank my mother, brother, sistah, and mi papa	Credit slide, same color as the title and same animation. (Thank anyone you'd like to and any credits that may need to given to photographers or music if you are not using your own)
